Coventry MARRIAGE care

Marriage Care Counselling.

...Coventry Marriage Care offers relationship counselling to those who are experiencing difficulties that they cannot overcome on their own: Marriage Care also offers couples an opportunity to explore relationship concerns before they become serious

... Our relationship counselling services are available to the whole of the adult population, married or not, of all faiths or none. Clients can be seen separately as well as together.

...Counsellors work confidentiality and with respect. They are unpaid professionals who have undergone rigorous training, and receive on-going supervision and in-service training.

...Our counselling service relies on contributions from clients but no formal charge is made for our services.

Counselling sessions are usually at Diamond House, 13 Stoney Road, Coventry CV1 2NP

For an appointment phone 0800 389 3801.

Marriage Preparation

...Coventry Marriage Care offers Marriage Preparation Courses in co-operation with local churches and others who are helping couples to prepare for their wedding and for married life.

...Courses are held either at Diamond House or in parish centres. For further information contact your parish priest or ring 0800 389 3801

Marriage Care Volunteers

....Coventry Marriage care consists of a small team of volunteers. We need to expand this team to fulfil the demands on the service and would appreciate help in the following areas:- Receptionists to greet clients; additional members to the management team; people willing to train as counsellors or members of the Marriage Preparation team

Marriage Care Nationally

....Coventry is one of about 60 Marriage Care centres nationally. Other centres and the national office can be contacted via the national website.
