FROM FATHER MICHAEL

Is it possible to be a good Catholic while at the same time trying to build up a positive relationship with Protestants, Muslims and other religious groups? Put another way, is it possible to be a good Catholic and NOT promote a positive relationship with members of other Faiths?

We are asked today to do two very different things – 1- To be more definite about our Catholic identity by taking a Catholic identity card and carrying it with us at all times. 2- To give consideration as to how we might try to build up a more definite relationship with members of other Faiths in our neighborhood.

To help us do all this we have with us at 9.30 & 11.15 this Sunday, Fr. Jeremy Howard, who is Chairman of the Archdiocesan Commission for Inter-Religious Dialogue. We look forward to hearing what he has to say.

This is also Christian Aid Week. We still need some more street collectors. This is a wonderful way to affirm our Christian identity and to express that identity through practical action. Please help if you can. Who knows what our church and our world will be like in 10/20 or 30 years time! Do come and support our children and their families on Tuesday night as they come to make their confessions in preparation for their First Holy Communion in June. There will be 3 priests here. We all need God's forgiveness in this beautiful Sacrament. And don't forget the Annual Parish Meeting at 12.20pm NEXT Sunday 20th May.
