

'The Resurrection is not a thing of the past, the Resurrection has reached us and seized us. We grasp hold of it, we grasp hold of the risen Lord, and we know that he holds us firmly even when our hands grow weak. We grasp hold of his hand, and thus we also hold on to one another's hands, and we become one single subject, not just one thing. I. but no longer I: This is the formula of Christian life rooted in baptism, the formula of the Resurrection within time. I but no longer I: If we live in this way, we transform the world. It is a formula contrary to all ideologies of violence, it is a programme opposed to corruption and to the desire for power and possession.' Pope Benedict.

May the peace and joy of Easter and all the promised blessings of Our Risen Lord be with us all.

Fr. Adrian.
