Offertory Collection. Mass Attendance: 152

The special collection last Sunday for the Pope's visit raised £382.39 towards the expenses involved by the Church in organising a number of Pastoral events culminating with beautification of Cardinal John Henry Newman at an open air Mass at Coventry Airport on Sunday 19th September at 10am. Congratulations! The amount raised was over 3 times our second normal collection. Many thanks. This visit is both a State Visit paid by the Government and a Pastoral visit financed by the Church. Not much can be done without money, but it is also true that not much can be done without prayer. We need to continue to pray for the Popes visit. Prayer cards are available by the missalettes. Say the Prayers every day with the Family if possible. Some Papal Facts: Benedict XVI is the oldest man to have been elected Pope since Pope Clement XII in 1730. Benedict XVI was elected on 19 April, the Feast of the German Pope Saint Leo IX. Benedict XVI will be the 99th Head of State to visit this country during the reign of Queen Elizabeth II.
